

Mary Kerr, 11 February 2017

Mary Kerr is an American Quilt Society certified appraiser and an award-winning quilter. She is an active member of the Professional Appraisers Association for Quilters Textiles (PAAQT), the American Quilt Study Group (AQSG), American Quilters Society, Cabin Branch Quilters, Quilters Unlimited, Mason Dixon QPN, the Virginia Quilt Consortium, the Quilt Professionals Network, MMS, and several quilt dating groups in her area.

She grew up in a family of quilters and has been teaching since 1987. Kerr currently lectures and conducts workshops that focus on quilt history and the preservation of antique textiles. Her recent work marries her love of all things vintage with the freedom of expression that is encouraged in the art quilt community.

Kerr is also the owner of Pieced of Olde, a small business that specializes in restoration and repair of antique textiles. She and her husband, Ralph, live outside of Washington, DC.
