

Jan Wutkowski, 11 March 2017

Jan Wutkowski studied millinery at the Melbourne, Australia, School of Millinery and has been creating bespoke hats and headpieces since 1995. Wutkowski teaches throughout the United States and has also taught in England, France, and Australia. Her teaching resumé includes some of the most prestigious art and craft schools in the United States, including John C. Campbell Folk School, Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts, the Southwest School of Art, and Mendocino Art Center, among others. She also has been a frequent instructor at Australia's International Millinery Forum.

Wutkowski is one of the cofounders of Millinery Meet-up, a biennial millinery education event with prominent millinery instructors from across the world. She is the owner of aMuse: artisanal finery, a millinery studio in Wilmington, North Carolina.