

Potomac Fiber Arts Guild Form for Instructors, Appraisers and Conservators

Potomac Fiber Arts Guild members who teach or perform other services such as textile and fiber art appraisals or conservation are encouraged to fill out the following form to be listed on the Guild's Web site. Only current Guild members may be listed on the site.

Name _____ Web site _____
 Address _____
 City, State, Zip _____
 Email _____

The purpose of the list is to provide both members and the public with the names and contact information of members who teach fiber arts, appraise textiles or fiber art, or consult on textile conservation. Interested parties may contact you for further information such as timing, course content or fees which will not be included in the Guild website. The Guild will neither handle requests for information nor be responsible for misinformation.

A general location street addresses will not be listed on the website. Only email addresses and websites will be included in listings.

Provide a brief description (5-10 words) of the fiber arts areas that you teach (e.g., weaving for children, ages 6-10; quilting, beginning to advanced; dyeing using fiber reactive dyes; etc.) or the appraisal and conservation services that you offer. If you offer classes, do not list each class that you teach, but rather a general description of the range of subjects.

Please select the general category in which you would like your area of expertise to be listed. You may provide listings in several categories:
